

Please do whatever is possible to stop the Consumer's Bankers Assoc. from weakening the Indiana Do Not Call law. It doesn't matter whether unwanted calls come from an associated business or not. Unwanted calls don't become less unwanted because they are from the bank that I do service with. In fact, if I get unwanted calls from my bank, my account will be closed and I'll go somewhere where I won't be harrassed by these calls.

Greg Keller
Celestine, IN